Dear Parents and Carers

We have had a quieter week in nursery this week, preparing for the Nativity Play in a few weeks time. We have shared the story The Twinkly Nativity and we have been learning the rhyme I'm a Little Snowman. We have talked about winter weather, melting and freezing. We have also been exploring different ways of mark making, using the interactive whiteboard.

Next week, our story of the week for our older children is Farmer Christmas Festive Farmyard, by Catherine Baddley. The farmyard animals need to come to the rescue when the tractor breaks down. For our younger children, the story is That's not my snowman. Our rhyme of the week is 5 Christmas Puddings. We will be practising counting backwards. Our words of the week are Christmas and the days of the week.

Five Christmas Puddings

Five Christmas puddings in a baker's shop,
Big and round with sugar on the top.
Along comes a girl with a penny one day.
Bought a Christmas pudding and took it away

Four Christmas puddings in a baker's shop,
Big and round with sugar on the top,
Along comes a boy with a penny one day,
Bought a Christmas pudding and took it away.

Three Christmas puddings in a baker's shop,
Big and round with sugar on the top,
Along comes a girl with a penny one day,

Bought a Christmas pudding and took it away.

Two Christmas puddings in a baker's shop,
Big and round with sugar on the top,
Along comes a boy with a penny one day,
Bought a Christmas pudding and took it away,

One Christmas puddings in a baker's shop,
Big and round with sugar on the top,
Along comes a girl with a penny one day,
Bought a Christmas pudding and took it away

Nursery Nativity

The nursery nativity is on Friday 12th December at 11.00am. It will take place in the school hall and all are welcome to come and watch. It would be lovely if your child could come dressed up as a character from the Nativity (Mary, Joseph, angel, king, shepherd, donkey etc etc.) however if your child does not want to get dressed up they are welcome to come in a Christmas jumper or top. We would rather they felt comfortable for the play than made to dress up.

Regards

Mrs Price and the Nursery Team
